

Information for ITAP Visitors

The research training programme(s) that you have been selected to participate in will be held on one of the two campuses of the Institute of Theoretical and Applied Physics \(ITAP\) in Turunç near the beach resort town of Marmaris in the Republic of Turkey. The information on which of the two campuses where your activity is at, is provided in the relevant program's short description in the ITAP main web page.

This document is intended to make you feel at home during your stay at ITAP and in Turkey, so please read it in advance. It addresses the following issues:

1. Pre-departure information
2. How to reach ITAP's Turunç and Dereözü campuses?
3. Accommodation
4. Infrastructure
5. Recreational activities
6. Useful information and telephone numbers
7. Contact

Please inform us of any suggested corrections to this document.

1. Pre-Departure Information

1.1 What to Bring?

Consider packing the following items:

- ✓ Each attendee is strongly encouraged to bring a laptop computer.
- ✓ If you need books, then bring your own, but there is a small library.
- ✓ If you need regular medication, then bring enough supplies or prescriptions.
- ✓ Summer clothes, beach wear, etc. A raincoat and a sweater may be useful, except in July and August.
- ✓ Check voltage, frequency, and power plugs to see if you need converters.

1.2 Visa

It is your responsibility to make sure you have any required visa (check the country- specific visa requirements) and travel documents to enter the Republic of Turkey. An invitation letter, which can help you through visa acquirement, will be sent to you on request; if you face further difficulties, do not hesitate to contact us.

1.3 Money

We recommend you carry enough cash with you. Even though credit cards are widely accepted, you will need some cash, especially for short transportation. The Turkish currency is the Turkish lira, abbreviated TRY abroad and TL in Turkey, one lira being currently about half a euro.

2. How to Reach ITAP?

2.1 To Turkey

If possible, book a flight to;

- the nearby Dalaman International Airport (130 km to ITAP),
- if not to Bodrum-Milas International Airport (170 km to ITAP),
- or İzmir Adnan Menderes International Airport (350 km to ITAP).

The most convenient airport is Dalaman with an efficient airport-to-Marmaris ground transportation. There are direct flights during the summer months from many international airports to Dalaman.

If none of the three works, or if you want to see the country, aim at Ankara Esenboğa International Airport, İstanbul Atatürk International Airport, or İstanbul Sabiha Gökçen International Airport.

Another option is to fly to the nearby Greek island of Rhodos, and take the daily morning ferry from there to Marmaris (trip takes one and half hours). We do not describe this option further here, until we learn details about it from somebody who has taken it, but it is almost certainly easy (additionally a Greek visa may be required depending on the country you are from since you will be in Greece to take the ferry to Marmaris/Turkey).

2.2 To Marmaris

From Ankara, Bodrum, İstanbul, or İzmir International airports:

- Take a Havaş shuttle bus (up to 50 lira, depending on the distance) to the main coach terminal (otogar in Turkish), such as AŞTİ in Ankara, or Esenler Otogar and Harem Otogar in İstanbul. There are many coach companies servicing Marmaris (up to 90-100 TL, dependin on the distance, comfort, and speed).

- You may also find some coach company offices at airports and get your ticket directly there. Most probably, they will provide airport-to-otogar transportation; otherwise, proceed to the otogar with the Havaş shuttle bus.
- There are large number of coach companies with on-line reservations and ticket sales, namely Ulusoy Turizm, Kamil Koç, Pamukkale Turizm and Metro Turizm.
- Some of their coaches have wireless internet. The bus ride takes for İstanbul-Marmaris about 11 hours (750 km), Ankara-Marmaris about 10 hours (650 km), İzmir-Marmaris about 4 hours (350 km).
- There are frequent domestic flights to Dalaman International Airport from major cities in Turkey but also from abroad.

From Dalaman International Airport: Take a Havaş shuttle bus (about 25 lira) to Marmaris.

Beware: Since Marmaris is a renowned beach resort, coach/flight tickets from Ankara or İstanbul may be sold out in the summer, so you might have to wait for several hours before getting a seat.

Hint: Tell the bus/coach personnel that you want to get off at Marmaris otogar (Marmaris bus sitation).

2.3 From Marmaris to Turunç and ITAP

You should know in advance, at which of the ITAP campuses your activity is. This information is available at the ITAP 2013 program page (<http://itap-tthv.org>).

2.3.1 From Marmaris Otogar to ITAP-Turunç (main) Campus:

There are several ways which are listed below to reach ITAP-Turunç campus.

- From Marmaris Otogar (bus terminal) take a minibus, which is 6 TL in order to come to Turunç. There are available from 7.00 to 00.00 (the relevant bus schedules can also be found in the ITAP's website). Look for a Turunç sign on the minibus and inform the driver that you would like to go to ITAP Turunç campus.

How to get off the minibus if you come to ITAP-Turunç campus: (See Fig.1) You will be dropped a bit before the entrance of Turunç, at the tall sign with Turkish flags of the Loryma Hotel. Walk the sign-posted road, past the Loryma Hotel, for about 500 meters until you reach ITAP at the end of the dead-end.

OR;

- Take a taxi (about 60 lira with special ITAP discount) from Marmaris otogar directly to ITAP; if the driver does not know ITAP, tell him to drive through the Loryma Hotel compound until the dead end.

OR;

- Take a boat taxi (10 TL) from Marmaris rihtim (bay), to which you can walk from otogar (about 15 minutes) or go by taxi (about 10 lira). Everyone can show you where the boats are. They circulate 9.30 am to 7 pm. You will be dropped from the taxiboot at Turunç bay, from where you can walk uphill (about 20 minutes, but consider the heat) or take a taxi (about 13 TL) up the switchbacks on the steep hill (there are 200 vertical meters to be climbed) to ITAP. If you do not see any taxi, then enter any shop and ask for a taksi (taxi); people understand English and German, but may not be too fluent.

2.3.2 From Marmaris Otogar to ITAP-Dereözü Campus:

From Marmaris Otogar (bus terminal) take a minibus, which is 6 TL in order to come to Turunç. There are available from 7.00 to 00.00 (the relevant bus schedules can also be found in the ITAP's website). Look for a Turunç sign on the minibus and inform the driver that you would like to go to ITAP Dereozu campus.

How to get off the minibus if you come to ITAP-Dereözü campus:
(See Fig.2)

You take the same Marmaris-Turunc minibus until the junction to Dereözü village (about 3 km before reaching Turunc). Some minibus drivers can take you all the way to ITAP-Dereözü campus if you pay an addition few liras provided other passengers do not revolt. If not succeeded in convincing the drivers and the passengers, get off the minibus at the Dereözü village junction and walk for 350 m slight-uphill then 300 m steep downhill until you start seeing ITAP signs within the Dereözü village.

3. Accomodation and Food

ITAP consists of two adjoined buildings, one of which has accommodation for the participants, while the other one includes classrooms, a computer room, a library, several offices, and a dining hall. A large terrace, with a breathtaking view over the bay and partially shaded by olive trees, has seats and tables for outdoor gatherings.

Usually, two or three students share a bedroom, which has a fully equipped bathroom, housekeeping service, a telephone and a safe; some bedrooms have a sea view balcony. A lecturer usually gets a double room for single occupancy. There is no air conditioner in the bedrooms, but fans are present. Sheets, a pillow, a light duvet, two towels, and soap are included. Laundry service requires a fee.

Three set meals of fine Turkish cuisine are included every day: breakfast at 8 am, lunch at 1 pm, and dinner at 7 pm. If you have any dietary restrictions, then please inform us well in advance.

Two tea/coffee breaks are enjoyed with fine Turkish cookies every day. Other refreshments and beverages are charged extra (to students) at appropriate prices, and the accumulated total must be paid in cash when checking out.

3.1 Code of Conduct

Quietness in the bedrooms and on the terrace is kindly requested, especially between 11 pm and 8 am. There is no curfew, but the building with classrooms is locked at midnight, and you can access your bedroom at any time.

Smoking is not allowed in any room, but you can smoke on the terrace and balconies. ITAP is located in an area that is very prone to forest fires: smokers must use ashtrays, and smoking on the terrace and balconies during windy/stormy days is strictly forbidden.

4. Infrastructure

Other facilities at ITAP are:

- A state-of-the-art computational infrastructure, with an eight-node parallel server operating under SUSE Linux, connected to 16 terminals (Pentium IV 3GHz), also operating under Linux (with Fortran77, Fortran90, LAPACK, 2D and 3D graphical tools, text editors, etc). The server is used solely for computational purposes. The ITAP domain is established between all lecture rooms and the computer room.
- Three air-conditioned classrooms (with a capacity of 30 to 70 seats each) are equipped with multimedia technology for lectures.
- A wireless network.
- A fully equipped 14-inch Meade telescope (model LX200GPS).
- An open-air amphitheater (with a capacity of 50 seats) next to the terrace.
- A small swimming pool and reclining chairs on the terrace.

5. Recreational Activities

There is no restriction on any extra-curricular activities, but participation is required during all scheduled educational activities. Here are a few suggested recreational activities:

- Astronomical observations can be made using our telescope if there is an astronomer in our facility.
- Turunç does not have a very big entertainment area and is much more easy-going than Marmaris, but there are several places to go out at night for a drink or a delicious dinner. This relaxed attitude also applies to Turunç shop owners when it comes to doing business.
- There are many boat trips available to various destinations and few things are more rewarding than sailing along the coastline through the crystal-clear turquoise coloured waters. The Turunç Cruise goes around the bays near Turunç as well as the bays of İçmeler and Marmaris. The Blue Cave Cruise passes next to Cleopatra's Cave and Yalancı Boğaz, where an ancient ship yard is located; this cruise also stops along the way for you to enjoy the atmosphere or have a swim.
- There are certified PADI (Professional Association of Diving Instructors) guides at your service in Turunç for you to profit from the beautiful spots of the gulf of Turunç. The PADI guides will help you regardless of your prior knowledge of scuba diving.
- It is possible to rent a (motor)bicycle or jet skis, take a banana ride, do parasailing or water skiing, or simply just lie at the warm sandy beach and enjoy the sea and sun.
- If the beauty of the nature tempts you to mountain biking or hiking, then we advise you to go in a group or with a guide who knows the area. There is a high penalty if you are caught within a non-designated area, due to the risk of forest fires.
- Amos is a nearby ancient site with remnants of a city that once was magnificent and controlled the gulf. You can go there by car or (motor)bike through the mountains the route on its own holds some surprises due to the beauty of the nature. Another way to Amos is by boat.

Before any of these activities, please make sure that appropriate person insurance is guaranteed by the person or company whose services you hire.

There are currency exchange offices where you can exchange many foreign currencies with Turkish liras at displayed daily exchange rates. Jewellery stores also do currency exchange, but at slightly worse rates.

6.6 Car Rental

You can rent a car at offices of reputed international companies in every airport, as well as from local companies in Turunç and Marmaris, but we do not recommend the latter.

Careful: Outside Turunç, and in other rural areas, many roads are not paved or not protected, therefore we advise you never to drive fast, since there may be dangerous curves along the way.
